2005-2006 CWD Deer Carcass Tag

Antlerless
Antlered (3" or more)
(see reverse side)

Immediately upon killing a deer: Validate this tag by slitting the correct TIME, MONTH, and DATE of kill and the TYPE of deer. Then attach this tag to the ear or antler of the deer. Failure to complete these steps renders this tag invalid and the deer illegal.

Sept Oct Nov Dec Jan Feb Mar Apr May Jun Jul Aug

This tag is valid only in the CWD Disease Eradication Zone (DEZ) and Herd Reduction Zone (HRZ). This tag is not weapon specific, but you must hold a DEZ Landowner or Hunter Permit or the appropriate deer hunting license for the weapon type you use.

Either-sex season: A buck or antlerless deer may be tagged with this tag.

EAB season: One antlerless deer may be tagged with this tag. A buck may be tagged with this tag only if an unregistered antlerless deer has been legally harvested and tagged prior to the harvest of the buck, and the antlerless deer accompanies the buck until both are registered.

These FREE tags can be acquired at a rate of four per day per licensed hunter, and are available at all DNR Service Centers, and select license vendors and registration stations in and around the DEZ and HRZ.

2005 CWD Buck Authorization

WISCONSIN DEPT. OF NATURAL RESOURCES
DNR Customer #

Must be attached to back of your deer carcass tag before tagging a buck during the CWD Earn-a-Buck season.

This sticker is valid only in the CWD Disease Eradication Zone (DEZ) and Herd Reduction Zone (HRZ). When placed on the back of an unused deer carcass tag, this sticker authorizes the tagging of a buck deer during the hunts when EAB regulations are in effect (Oct. 27-Nov.18). You must possess the appropriate deer hunting license & carcass tag for the weapon type you use.

Only one buck deer may be tagged under the authorization of this sticker.

A sticker will be issued (1) upon registering an antlerless deer during the either-sex CWD seasons (2) for an antlerless deer not accompanying a buck (used as authorization for the buck) during the EAB season.

These tags are valid in the DEZ and HRZ (see below) or statewide in any deer management unit (following regular deer hunting regulations). These tags are weapon specific—only deer killed with a gun may be tagged with the Gun Deer Carcass Tag and only deer killed with a bow may be tagged with the Archery Deer Carcass Tag.

In the CWD Disease Eradication Zone (DEZ) and Herd Reduction Zone (HRZ):

Either-sex season: One buck or one antlerless deer may be tagged with this tag.

EAB season: One antlerless deer may be tagged with this tag. A buck may be tagged with this tag only if an unregistered antlerless deer has been legally harvested and tagged prior to the harvest of the buck, and the antlerless deer accompanies the buck until both are registered.

These tags are issued with a deer hunting license, which can be acquired statewide at ALIS sales locations, DNR Service Centers, on the internet, or by phone.

Hunter's Choice Permits are not valid in the CWD Zones. Antlerless deer harvested under the authority of an agricultural damage tag or CWD landowner permit (DEZ only) in the CWD zones may be used to earn the opportunity to harvest a buck in the CWD zones.
